

David Pye

Biography

David Pye is a Programme Manager within the Research and Information Team at the Local Government Association (LGA) and responsible for externally funded research programmes and projects.

Prior to this he was Research Director at the National Foundation for Educational Research (NFER) and was involved in a range of evaluations of education and training initiatives both within the UK and overseas.

David has also lectured and researched at a number of higher education institutions. He currently sits on a range of boards and advisory bodies including for The Information Authority, The NFER and DfE.