

DOMINIC HARRISON
Dip H Ed., MPH, FFPH.

Dominic Harrison is the Director of Public Health for Blackburn with Darwen Borough Council, a member of the Blackburn with Darwen CCG Board and an Honorary Professor at the University of Central Lancashire.

His previous post was as the Deputy Regional Director of Public Health for the Department of Health in the Government Office Northwest. He has also worked for NICE and the Health Development Agency as Associate Director for the North West Region.

Dominic has worked on a number of public health system reviews in Central and Eastern Europe for the World Health Organisation and was recently a member of the Marmot European Review team who published 'WHO (2013) The Review of Social Determinants and the Health Divide in the WHO European Region' (2013). Over the past two years he has written on public health issues for the Guardian, the Local Government Chronicle and the BMJ.

His principal professional interests are related to health governance and the health outcome implications of poverty, inequality, social justice and sustainable development. Last year he has published 'WHO (2014) Governance for Health Equity in the European Region' which can be downloaded at :

http://www.euro.who.int/\_data/assets/pdf\_file/0020/235712/e96954.pdf

You can follow Dominic Harrison on Twitter : @BWDDPH